IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SIXTH APPELLATE DISTRICT

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

MARK JOHN HOEIM,

Defendant and Appellant.

H022956

(Santa Clara County
Super. Ct. No. CC057743)

On July 28, 2000, an information was filed charging defendant, Mark John Hoeim, with possession of methamphetamine for sale (Health and Saf. Code, § 11378). The information also alleged four “strike” prior convictions, two prior “narcotic” convictions and two prior “prison” convictions (Pen. Code, §§ 667, subds. (b)-(i); 1170.12, 667.5, subd. (b); Health and Saf. Code, § 11370.2, subd. (c)).

Defendant pled guilty to the charge and admitted all priors. He thereafter requested the court to exercise its discretion pursuant to Penal Code section 1385 and dismiss his prior strike convictions. The court partially granted defendant’s request and struck three of his four strike convictions as well as one narcotics prior and one prison prior. His ultimate sentence was a commitment to state prison for eight years. We appointed counsel to represent defendant in this court.

Appointed counsel filed an opening brief which states the case and the facts but raises no specific issues. We notified defendant of his right to submit written argument in his own behalf within 30 days. That period has elapsed and we have received no written argument from defendant.

Pursuant to People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, we have reviewed the entire record and have concluded that there is no arguable issue on appeal.

The judgment is affirmed.
